EDITORIAL MUSINGS.

Some Timely Don't's.

Don't slacken up in your work.
Don't get the idea the Red Cross will have an over supply of the needed articles.
Don't flatter yourself that this horrid war will be over in a few weeks or months.
Don't come to the conclusion that your services are not needed by the Red Cross.
Don't stay out with the slackers and allow others to do your work and bear your burdens.
Don't say to the noble boys who are leaving home "I had no interest in you after I said good-bye. You may live or die. You may be wounded or sick and sorely need the attention, clothing, bandages and careful nursing the army cannot give you, but I cannot bring myself to the point where I will make a single sacrifice or perform a single service to help you."
Don't allow this great army of our splendid young manhood to take up the burden of the defense of our country, our own homes and friends, shedding their precious blood on many foreign battlefields and when the war is over and these brave boys—those that are left—come marching home to be taken into the arms of a loving and grateful people, don't let it be said that your heart was cold, and your avarice and ingratitude was so great that you never contributed a dollar or made one sacrifice for their comfort while they were away.

What To Do In Paris.

Don't fail to sound its praises wherever you are.
Don't make your money out of its citizens and spend it somewhere else.
Don't frown on every public improvement simply because it will cost you a dollar or two.
Don't sneer at the efforts of your fellow citizens to build up the town, but lend a hand yourself.
Don't talk a great deal about what should be done and remain on the back seat waiting for someone else to do it.
Don't say the public schools are a failure because your boy has been upsetting the school's discipline and has been punished.
Don't stay at home on election day, but get out and hustle for good men and good government.
Don't let a good local paper that is the town's untiring champion abandon the champion business because of lack of deserved patronage.
Don't forget to drop your dollar in the slot when the committee that is after a new enterprise comes around with the subscription list.
Don't forget that in building up the town, hearty co-operation, united endeavor and a spirit of get there are what win the day. There is no pull like a long pull, a strong pull and a pull together.

A Waste of Pigskin!

The high cost of shoes and other necessities that are made of leather in world-wide, and is attributed in large part to sheer scarcity of material. Nor does the Federal government's recent survey of the leather situation offer much hope of early relief. About the only hope, in fact, lies in the possible utilization of leather-supply sources hitherto neglected.

Which has given rise to the query: Why not skin the pigs before making them into bacon?

There is an old-fashioned idea that bacon and ham could not be cured properly without the "rind" on, but science has discounted it; and the exigencies of these times may work to banish it entirely. It is an erroneous one, just as is the idea—which is kept alive only by custom—that the porker must hang in the market stripped of his bristles, but not his hide.

Pigskin's value for a number of purposes is well recognized. And it is employed to a limited extent, but not as a stable leather. Shoe manufacturers, however, are said to be seeking ways to utilize it in their business, and doubtless they would employ great quantities of it in place of cowhide and calfskin but for its scarcity.

That swine could be made a potential supply of leather is indicated by the United States Department of Agriculture's estimate that there are upwards of 70,000,000 of these animals on American farms to-day. Yet the output of pigskin leather is negligible. Federal statistics show that at only seven of the principal stock yards of the country last year more than 22,000,000 hogs were marketed. Yet all of that pigskin was wasted.

IN FLANDERS FIELD.

(A Reply.)

In Flanders Field the cannons boom
And fitful flashes light the gloom,
While up above, like eagles, fly
The fierce destroyers of the sky.
With stains the earth wherein you lie
Is redder than the poppy bloom
In Flanders Field.

Sleep on, ye brave. The shrieking shell,
The quaking trench, the startled yell,
The fury of the battle hell,
Shall wake you not for all is well.

Your flaming torch aloft we bear,
With burning heart an oath we swear
To keep the faith, to fight it through,
To crush the foe, or sleep with you
In Flanders Field.

Made of flat steel spring a quickly adjusted belt has been invented to take the place of strings on kitchen or laboratory aprons.

RED CROSS CHAPTERS MUST NOT ACCEPT SHORT SOCKS.

The Lake Division News, published at Cleveland, Ohio, in the interest of the American Red Cross Society, sends out the following warning to Red Cross Chapters:

"From National Headquarters and also from superintendents of inspection in the Lake Division of the Red Cross, we have received reports that the socks are coming in short in the foot and of uneven length.

"We therefore, ask the chapters to accept nothing less than a 10 1/4 foot. Sizes 10 1/2 to 12 1/2 are acceptable. On account of greater comfort for the feet and also the durability of the sock, we are encouraging hand knitting.

"We would recommend to the chapters having machines, that they knit 10 inches of the leg on the machine and then turn over the socks to be finished by hand. This method will insure an inch of knitting before commencing the heel.

"We would also caution against the pointed toe. Socks should never be closed at the toe with less than 20 stitches on the two needles. In placing the label on socks, cuff of sock should be stretched before sewing in label."

We may have passed the days of buck beer, but the latest substitute for lager carries a buffalo bull for a trademark. We always seem to be passing the buck or throwing the bull.

PLAIN NATURAL IRON BEST TONIC.

Costs But a Fraction What Weaker Preparations Sell For—A Spoonful In a Glass of Water a Dose.

The absolute proof that medicinal iron would help the blood and strengthen people wonderfully has caused many chemists to perfect more or less efficient iron tonics and more or less efficient tablets.

For most people, however, the writer would say that just plain highly concentrated Acid Iron Mineral is better, far cheaper and stronger and goes from two to six times as far.

A bottle of Acid Iron Mineral, kept handy and a teaspoonful poured in a glass of drinking water after meals, makes a delightful, very unusual and highly beneficial tonic and strengthener, and if the blood needs enriching and purifying it would be hard to find anything that does it better or rids the system of rheumatism and kindred ailments quicker than just plain concentrated Acid Iron Mineral, which is the name for non-alcoholic natural iron.

It also has a beneficial effect upon appetite and digestion, and the kidneys soon show its effects.

CITY MEN GOOD FARM WORKERS

Use of city men as farm workers in emergency seasons has demonstrated not only that many men employed in cities and towns were reared on farms and are skilled in harvest labor, but also that city men can stand

Don't Neglect Your Eyes.

"Oh, mother, I see lights in the sky." And this child, after visiting an optometrist, saw the stars for the first time. His mother, though a strong woman, broke down and wept to think she had neglected the child so long. Father, mother, are you going to allow your child to be thus neglected, when an examination of their eyes will reveal his or her true condition? Over 50 per cent of children have defective vision in some way. Better bring your child to us for a thorough, scientific examination. Will not advise glasses unless absolutely necessary. Open Saturday evenings until 9 o'clock.

The Efficiency Kitchen

Many years ago folks did not pay so much attention to the kitchen, but they have now come to realize that a modern kitchen in the home is just as essential as the office furniture is in father's downtown office. Think for a moment and imagine how easy the work would be if you had this beautiful New Process Gas Range with its snow panels in the doors, large roomy oven and broiler with porcelain broiler trays—so complete and sanitary—you know you don't always have a cook.

"New Process Saves Gas." Why?

A Refrigerator is a Positive Necessity!

A really good Refrigerator is one of the things we must have in the home. New Iceberg is just that kind. There are hundreds of them in this vicinity—and we do not know of a single dissatisfied customer. They are made with one piece porcelain provision chambers; the walls are full four-ply thickness; the heaviest refrigerator made for family use—and just now we are selling them at
